Employment

The Brothers of the Christian Schools

ANNOUNCEMENT OF OPENING

The San Miguel School – Providence, Rhode Island – has an opening for Head of School, beginning July 1, 2005.

The Head of School, nominated by the Long Island – New England District of the Brothers of the Christian Schools to the Board of Directors of San Miguel, is hired by and accountable to that Board.

The Head of School has overall responsibility for the management of the San Miguel School. The Head leads the school in the continued development, implementation, maintenance, and monitoring of an excellent program that supports and promotes the Lasallian educational mission and its values.

The Head is the school's educational and visionary leader, interpreting and implementing the mission and goals of the San Miguel School in a manner that is consistent with Lasallian pedagogy and spirituality and assuring that the mission and goals of the school are incorporated into all parts of the curricular and extracurricular life of the school.

The Head of School should have a genuine affection for the human and Christian education of the young, especially the poor and the marginalized, and have the ability and willingness to relate well to middle school aged students. The Head should be a person whose faith is visible and inspiring in daily life and work.

The ability to create a collaborative, inclusive environment, conducive to sincere and open communication is critical. The Head should have an accessible, open and approachable style. It is important that the Head respect the dignity of every person and model behavior that demonstrates concern for all individuals including low income, marginalized, and culturally diverse families and students. The population of San Miguel Providence is predominantly of Hispanic and African-American origins.

Applicants should send their resume with three references to Bro. Dennis Lee, FSC at: Christian Brothers Center / 635 Ocean Road / Narragansett RI 02882 by January 7, 2005.

The successful candidate will have an advanced degree and some experience in educational administration. The salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. A benefits package will be provided.

The San Miguel School is an Equal Opportunity Employer
